"IT'S WILSON!" DISCOVERER CRIED

President Fails to Escape Recognition on Broadway and Gets Ovation—Saddened by Mrs. Wilson's Painting.

New York, November 14.—President Wilson found tonight he could not escape recognition in New York even when he appeared upon the street as a private citizen. He tried it and failed.

Wilson announced that he intended to spend the evening quietly at the home of his friend, Colonel E. M. House, but changed his mind and at 8:30 o'clock he and Colonel House started for a stroll on Broadway. They were attended only by a couple of secret service men some distance in the rear.

Soon the president and his escort halted for a moment to listen to the music provided at a Salvation Army open-air meeting, and right there Mr. Wilson's income came to an end. "It's Wilson! It's President Wilson!" shouted the discoverer.

Instantly the Salvationists were alerted as the listeners began to follow the president and his host. The secret service men closed in closely. Two blocks farther on a volunteer street orator discussing the Mexican situation gained the nation's chief executive as an auditor. The president smiled and started on as the speaker uttered the words "the president."

"March for Wilson!" The next stop in the Wilson itinerary was at a suffrage meeting. The speaker was interrupted by the president's name. The crowd dispersed and the president followed by the time he gained a passing salute from a group of New York patrolmen volunteered to assist the secret service operative in his duty, a path for the city's distinguished visitor and they began looking for a safe haven.

The suggestion was made as they reached thirty-fourth street that they seek the Waldorf-Astoria hotel. The hotel was reached safely and the officers made a lane for Mr. Wilson. As he gained the door the president smiled and waved his hand. "Goodbye, I'm going to get away from you now."

The crowd surged around from the Waldorf-Astoria entrance. Mr. Wilson's "Colonel" and his secret service men were taken to the second floor on the fifth avenue side, as they reached the street the president caught sight of a painting of Mr. Wilson in the window of an art store.

Sadly and silently, the president stood and gazed at the picture for a few minutes. Then he turned and went to the fifth avenue bus and in this vehicle the president of the United States his exploration of the city ended for the night, rode to the home of Colonel House.

President Wilson took a complete rest today, playing golf during the morning and taking a long automobile ride in the afternoon.

During his automobile ride today the president was within a few miles of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who is at his home in Oyster Bay. A few days ago the president and Mr. Roosevelt expressed interest when told that Mr. Wilson was planning to visit him, and he hoped the president with Avenue Presbyterian church and dinner at the home will make up the president's program tomorrow.

COTTON-LADEN STEAMER PASSES THROUGH CANAL

Washington, November 14.—Traffic which Panama canal officials believed would develop high importance, recently was inaugurated when the steamer Pacific Cable, Galveston to Yokohama, laden with 3,778 bales of cotton, passed out into the Pacific. By way of the canal the steamer saved 8,110 nautical miles. The canal record estimated the time saved at 22 days or 3,468 on the outward voyage alone. Tolls amounting to more than $4,000 were paid by the steamer but similar charges would have been levied had she gone via the Suez canal and the money saved is net gain to the owners. The matter route might have been selected, it was stated, a balance in favor of the Panama canal would have been shown.

Since cotton exported to Japan in 1913 was valued at $22,725,054, and the value for an increase in exports with it at country in 1914, officials believe the route to carry the Panama way will insure the routing of the entire shipment hereafter through the canal.

A Message of Sound Economy to Housewives, Concerning—Linens

A Sale Lasting Through This Week:

Economy is a subject worthy of your attention—and by economy we do not mean lowest price. Durability is economy.

Good Linens are a real investment—they yield three-fold returns of service, wear and satisfaction.

The careful housewife with napery for her Thanksgiving table, and future social functions—likewise for constant use—will find it greatly to her advantage to select her Linens this week—Monday, if possible, while assortments are at their best.

We tell you of them briefly below, beginning with the bread-and-butter damask:

Damask

71 and 72-inch Irish and Scotch Damask, a variety of choice patterns, both staple and fancy—priced at $100 yard—the best Damask made at this price.

64-inch Mercerized Damask, an excellent wearing number—an assortment of beautiful patterns; priced at 50c yard.

72-inch extra heavy, fine quality Satin Damask; the most pleasing patterns; price $1.25 yard.

Hemmed Cloths, Ready for Use

Beautiful Damask Cloths, in shamrock, spot, carnation-and-stripe, aster and lily of the valley patterns, three sizes, priced as follows:
2x2 yards, square, at $2.50.
2x2½ yards, square, $3.00.
2x3 yard size, $3.50.

Elegant cloths, of double Satin Damask; plain with hand border, for hemstitching and monogram work:
2x2 yard size, at $5.00.
2x2½ yard size, at $6.00.
2x3 yard size, at $7.00.

hemmed—21-inch size, priced at $2.75 dozen.

For every day this week we have provided special values in—

20-inch Napkins, at $2.50.

24-inch Napkins, at $3.00.

A large assortment of double Satin Damask Napkins—choice patterns—some in new, round designs, regular dinner size, at $4 and $5 dozen.

A Quick, Special Sale of Laces at 10c Yard

Regular 15c and 20c Laces

Already you are deep in Christmas plans, the making of pretty camisoles, "Teddies," boudoir caps, and so on. Every one of these require lace. You may save enough on these Laces Monday to buy materials for several gifts. A variety of dainty, diamond mesh and Tosca Valenciennes, both edges and insertions. They sell here regularly at 15c and 20c—buy them Monday at 10c yard.

Monday you may buy our
$1.00 Broadcloths at 89c
yard—all popular colors and black—54 inches wide.

Smart Shoes
For Dainty Feet

And—most important of all—we want you to see what comfort lies behind their smart style.

Try on the pretty Boots with their fabric quarters—or the low-heel shoe for walking.

There's individuality in shoes, and your type and style is here.

Red Cross Shoes are priced

$4 to $5

$1.25 Combinations At 50c

Let us tell you, first of all, they are display soiled—the reason for this absurdly low price. Of course this fact does not detract from their value in good materials and workmanship, and will be entirely overcome with one trip to the laundry.

These Combinations are made of good rain-suit—corset cover and drawers—variously trimmed with embroideries, lace, beadings and so on. All sizes for women. You will surely want your share of $1.25 Combinations as they go out at 50c each.

have regulated the British and French attacks.

NOTABLE PROGRESS BY THE FRENCH.

The French, who do not record the capture of the prisoners or their own losses, likewise claim they have repulsed the German attacks and made progress. Their advance on the Aisne, which reached the important railroad station of Valenciennes (12,500 feet) in this battle, was not in the least denied by the observers. It should be recalled that the French had been in the Aisne since the Franco-Belgian border as far as the French front line. The Germans have resumed their activity and as usual both German and French official accounts claim success.

While the eyes of the world have been on the battle in the Aisne, the Russian front has been almost completely forgotten. The Russian advance in the Aisne, which reached the important railroad station of Valenciennes (12,500 feet) in this battle, was not in the least denied by the observers. It should be recalled that the French had been in the Aisne since the Franco-Belgian border as far as the French front line. The Germans have resumed their activity and as usual both German and French official accounts claim success.

RUSSIANS PUSH INTO GERMANY.

The Russian advance in the Aisne, which reached the important railroad station of Valenciennes (12,500 feet) in this battle, was not in the least denied by the observers. It should be recalled that the French had been in the Aisne since the Franco-Belgian border as far as the French front line. The Germans have resumed their activity and as usual both German and French official accounts claim success.

FUTILE ASSAULTS BY GERMAN FORCES AGAINST THE ALLIES.

The Russian advance in the Aisne, which reached the important railroad station of Valenciennes (12,500 feet) in this battle, was not in the least denied by the observers. It should be recalled that the French had been in the Aisne since the Franco-Belgian border as far as the French front line. The Germans have resumed their activity and as usual both German and French official accounts claim success.

TURKEY BLAMES GREAT BRITAIN.

Turkey has issued a statement through the British press, blaming the war between the British and Ottoman empires on Great Britain. The statement says that the British government has been guilty of a "policy of aggression" and that the war is a result of British actions.

RUSSIAN MENACE RUSSIAN KAISER.

The Russian advance in the Aisne, which reached the important railroad station of Valenciennes (12,500 feet) in this battle, was not in the least denied by the observers. It should be recalled that the French had been in the Aisne since the Franco-Belgian border as far as the French front line. The Germans have resumed their activity and as usual both German and French official accounts claim success.

PERIL IN SHIFTS FOR GERMANY.

Military observers here, however, take the view that Russia on one side and Germany on the other, now having had time to prepare for the war, are in a perilous position.

Yeager-McGaughey.

A large and fashionable audience was assembled in the First Presbyterian church, in Knoxville, Tenn., on Wednesday evening, November 4, to witness the marriage of Miss Katie Yeager and Mr. Carroll Bradford McGaughey. Mr. McGaughey is one of the prominent young business men of Atlanta, but his family was originally from upper East Tennessee. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alvin A. Yeager, and is widely known in Knoxville and greatly beloved and admired wherever she is known. The bridal party numbered Judge Garrick W. Helickel, of Memphis, who gave the bride away, and the bridesmaids were Misses W. L. Lacy, nee Annie H. Helickel, nee Margaret Helickel, Miss Edith Lockett, maid of honor, Miss Misses Margaret, Frances, and Lillian Powell Smith, as first bridesmaids, Miss Cannon, Mary, and Dorothea Snodgrass, and Helen Johnson, of Chattanooga, as bridesmaids. Mr. Frank McGaughey, Jr., of Atlanta, was best man, and the groomsmen were Messrs. Howard McGaughey, Fred Yeager, brother of the bride, and Mr. J. B. McGaughey, of Knoxville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. McGaughey, of Knoxville, and was a most impressive affair. The church was filled with guests, and the reception at the home of the bride, Mrs. McGaughey, was a most successful one. The bride and groom were entertained with a reception at the home of the bride, Mrs. McGaughey, and the reception was a most successful one. Atlanta Chapter, U. D. C.

Atlanta chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met at the Woman's club rooms on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. T. Stevens in the chair. The special feature of the program was the address of Dr. H. M. DeLoose to the confederate veterans present, who came to receive crosses of honor. His message was eloquent and full of pathos, appealing to those who hold as dear the veterans of the confederate cause. Immediately followed the presentation of the crosses of honor. As Professor Joseph Perry called the names of the veterans, Miss Sara Lee Brane, daughter of the late General Charles B. Brane, presented them with the crosses. Mr. Samuel Scott, one of the veterans present, in the name of the veterans, presented the address of greetings to Mrs. William McCarthy, the absent president of the Atlanta chapter. Mrs. Dalton Mitchell, wife of the late one of the devoted daughters, Mrs. R. M. Clayton, wife of Atlanta's city engineer, and paid a loving tribute to her memory. Miss Elizabeth Hanna read recollections on the death of Mrs. Anna Good, late of Nashville, Tenn., the founder of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. William C. King sang two songs, "Absent" and "Night and Day," which appealed to the veterans especially. Mrs. R. B. Blackburn, in her characteristic way, recited two numbers.

First, pay debts;

Then, escape bondage.

The first duty of the southern farmer in a year unprecedented since the civil war is to sell enough cotton to pay his debts.

The second duty, and it is hardly less emergent, is to plan to escape next year the bondage of all-cotton by raising foodstuffs at home, reducing cotton sharply and using as little credit as possible to produce even his minimum of cotton.

These are the flat terms of the south's emancipation.

The Constitution makes the statement, advisedly, that the salvation of the south is in the hands of the farmer; and we say further, that the landlord who compels the tenant to overplant in cotton, or who himself holds too much cotton, or who will not permit the tenant to plant foodstuffs, is a public foe!

If cotton were a crop that were raised for free, it would be legitimate to hoard it indefinitely.

Cotton is not raised debt-free.

Most of it is raised on credit.

That credit influence starts at the crossroads grocery and stretches up to the pay envelope of every man in every city in the south. That is just how tyrannical and all-pervasive cotton is.

The landlord, therefore, or the farmer, who is hoarding cotton and not paying his debts is hoarding the cotton of other people; he is paralyzing the current of activity all along the line; he is affecting people living hundreds of miles away who never heard of him.

That is why The Constitution says the first duty of men who control cotton, and it isn't always the bona fide farmer, is to sell enough to clear debts. What cotton is left can be hoarded.

The Constitution realizes and sympathizes with the disappointment over low-priced cotton. The Constitution knows, too, that cotton, intrinsically, is worth more than the price it will now bring. But the south must, as it has on previous occasions, face the situation as it exists, not as we would like it to be. We have the nerve for that process. We must get about it. We must recognize that the cotton market is readjusting itself to a level that, while it will postpone many of the things the south hoped for, will permit a good, sound living, adding to the accumulated surplus of many years of good prices. Next year, the indications are that we will return to normal. But we are dealing now with the fact. And we must act accordingly.

If cotton were not a debt-ridden crop, the south today would be faced by no problem.

One of the big lessons of the present emergency is, henceforth, to raise cotton with as little debt as possible; to broaden our agricultural program to include foodstuffs. The country that feeds itself need fear nothing. The south can feed itself. It can produce every pound of meat and every other article of food necessary to the sustenance of man and beast.

And yet the anomaly is presented of this enormously versatile section of the country annually torturing away for the necessities of life, and for the bills, saddling a mortgage on cotton. The wonder is we have done so well, despite this self-created and maintained handicap.

The time is come to escape this bondage. The lesson of the war in Europe ought to hammer home the wisdom of an immediate beginning.

1. Sell cotton enough to clear debts;

2. Blase a way out of the system of bondage!

FERTILIZING HOME LABEL.

W. H. White, Jr., president of the White Provision Company, is just one of the Atlanta manufacturers who has discovered a record-breaking fertilizer for the home label. It's just—systematic advertising!

Elsewhere in this issue Mr. White describes his experience and his theories.

The manufacturers and consumers of Atlanta would do well to note both the power this community is to be built to its true scale as a big manufacturing and industrial center, it must be through increasing patronage of home industries, more local factories.

Mr. White thinks systematic advertising is one of the formulas for accomplishing that end.

He's right!

Several days ago The Constitution commented on a series of advertisements by Atlanta firms extolling the virtues of home-made goods, and detailing the value of keeping Atlanta money in Atlanta.

As a direct result of that campaign, several of these firms found such an increase in demand for their products that they had to put on more men. The White people, cited only as an illustration, put on five extra men. The Atlanta Refining & Mfg. Co. put on four extra men. The Dixie Pickle & Preserving Co. ten extra. The Southern Broom Manufacturing Company, three extra. Here is a total of twenty-two men given probably steady employment, several families provided for, and all through a few days' advertising of home wares. Keep the campaign up, broaden it and the results are difficult to prophesy. The beauty of the thing is that these special converts to Atlanta products are permanent. Once convinced, they're apt to stay put.

Organization is another certain way of fertilizing the home label. Naturally, the first organization to take up the cudgels, not spasmodically, but regularly, for home-made goods is the City Federation of Women's Clubs. They compile generally the buyers of the city. As a rule, their word is law. If every member of the federation declared tomorrow for the home label there would be an industrial demand for perhaps ten thousand extra workers. The unions, with their close organization, can help. Lodges can help. Each civic body can help, and surely there is no better civic endeavor than planning to increase the resources and wealth of the city in which one's lot, and the lot of his family, is cast.

A universal complaint of the Atlanta and Georgia manufacturers is that they are at a disadvantage, because they have to fight the transatlantic preference for the foreign label on goods.

Now, what is responsible for that traditional preference for the foreign label?

Advertising, not spasmodic and haphazard, but continuous, intelligent, unrelenting! Day after day, week after week, and month after month, outside manufacturers have hammered home the virtues of their products.

Like water dropping on a stone, the impact of the idea of those products has gone home to the consciousness of men and women everywhere, left a clean-cut and abiding impression.

Retraction! That's the thing!

What's the result? When the man or the woman wants a particular article, nine times out of ten they are going to call for the one a preference for which has been cleverly planted in their subconscious minds by the advertiser.

Another factor is that the consumer reasons, and quite naturally, that if the home article was good it would be advertised.

In any event, it is the article that makes itself persistently known that finds a steady market. The demand for it becomes a fixed habit.

This psychology should convey its easy lesson to the Atlanta manufacturer.

They must meet other manufacturers on their own ground and with their own weapons!

The ground is publicity, and the weapons, pertinacity!

If one little campaign of a few days' duration can produce such a marvelous change in the industries in Atlanta, what would not a protracted campaign accomplish?

The question answers itself.

Patronizing home industries means more factories; more factories means more population, more spending capacity, greater activity in the real estate market, for the producer, the butcher, the insurance man. The circle is endless and productive.

And—the best fertilizer of the home label, as Mr. White says, is—

ADVERTISING!

FOR ATLANTA'S BOYS.

Atlanta's youth and brought to the point of usefulness one of the best and most completely equipped Young Men's Christian Association plants in the entire country. The next and most important thing is to give it the widest possible efficiency in community-building and development.

There is but one way to do this, and that is to use it and make it possible for Atlanta's boys to use it.

This Y. M. C. A. plant can take care of one thousand boys. It will furnish them entertaining and wholesome diversion and keep them off the streets and supply them with attractive athletic exercise of every kind under expert direction. It will build them in heart and mind and body of good citizens, the best sort of citizens.

But to do this it must have community support, it must have members, and its well-organized committees of business men are going out among the business men of Atlanta this week to make them members of Atlanta's Y. M. C. A.

It is not a question of charity; that does not enter into it. These committees are not going on any begging expeditions; they have something to offer—a quid pro quo, and a bigger, better and more substantial one than has ever before been offered in Atlanta.

They are going to ask the business men of Atlanta to join the Young Men's Christian Association, not only because it will do Atlanta good, but because it will do them good; because the association has something to offer in exchange for the comparatively small membership fee, and it will give every man who joins it and uses it much more than his money's worth.

It will be more than that. Getting back to the boys in whom every business man in Atlanta is or ought to be interested, it will give the association an opportunity to render a community service that is invaluable.

Boys are admitted to the privileges and athletic classes of the association at membership fees which are merely nominal, and far below the cost of operation. This deficit must be made up in the dues from regular members; these must pay, largely, the expenses of the association while the institution engaged in building and developing Atlanta's future citizens.

Every business man in Atlanta who joins and uses the Young Men's Christian Association is doing more than his duty to his money's worth himself, but will make it possible for the association to take in at least two more boys at the lower rates.

The campaign is on, will be in full blast Monday, for 400 business memberships.

There are 400 men and more in Atlanta who can use the Y. M. C. A. with splendid advantage to themselves and at the same time make it a big, active paying institution—not paying in dollars and cents—which will render to Atlanta a thousandfold what her citizens have put into it.

The new association building in its infancy is caring for nearly 200 boys now. When these 400 business memberships are taken, it will mean opportunity for 800 more boys—a total of 1,000 boys on the road to vigor, strength and right living; the groundwork of 1,000 splendid citizens who will make Atlanta's future bigger and better than her past has ever been.

There is much more men should, and will, civic body can help, and surely there is no better civic endeavor than planning to increase the resources and wealth of the city in which one's lot, and the lot of his family, is cast.

The Holland Letter

Within a few days representatives from the army of the belligerent nations have entered into contract with the managers of a large American industrial plant to buy the entire output of this plant—which was stipulated that $100,000 should be paid in cash upon the execution of the contract. The payment is to be made in cash or in kind, as the belligerent nations may choose.

The board of the plant when the gunboat is placed this large industry know positively who the purchasers are, and they are not likely to sell to themselves. It is possible that the gunboat will be sold to the belligerent nations, but it is a sufficient guarantee for the payment of the bill.

Presumably this gunboat is to be utilized in the manufacture of ammunition, and a great amount of reasoning is necessary to persuade the manufacturers that it is likely to be used for the purpose of the belligerent nations.

It is known that the largest pieces of artillery are loaded with ammunition of which gunboats is the base. Powder, as we understand the term, is not used for these larger pieces.

The Harvest Fields of Home

BY FRANK L. STANTON.

AT HOME with the hearts of the nation—a wonderful table is spread: The harvest fields have answered the tolling of Providence's blood-red bell. Shadows that breathe of world-sorrow from distant and storm-torn skies, But strength for today and the wonderful Way of God shining clear in Life's eyes.

ROUND the home-hearth play the children—thanks be to God for Life's grace! Messenger of Life's Morning, bringing light to the mother's sweet face; Theirs the first home of the Morning, catching its earliest beams, And mother-joints bending above them when Twilight comes in with the Dreams.

SHE thinks, when they're clasped to her bosom—when Evening unveils the first star, Of the war-driven waifs of the nations—the motherless dreamers afar; They come to her, calling and crying; she hears in the Night the light fall Of their feet' young tread the gloom-darkened hearthstones, and there's room in her love for them all.

AT HOME with the hearts of the nation: On hillside and valley and plain Shine the love-sheltered coats of the tollers where Love's more than gold in the gain; Valleys of Peace and of Plenty; hills that see Heaven and say: "Answered—the prayers of Thy children: God walks the great world today!"

WHEREVER friends with the fields that have blessed us, far hidden from Hunderewp strife; O'Hear the fullness of harvest, where Love reaps the lilies of Life; Joy of the world in the tolling; so are the world-tables spread; So falls the Heaven's benediction where the sad hosts of Hunger are fed.

THERE was strength for the storms of the past time; there'll be light in the storms that may be; The Life-Ship sails sure to the harbor whose lights shine like stars o'er the sea.

At home with the hearts of the nation, with the blessing of Love and of Light, The shadow of God on the life-breathing soil, and the crowned heights eternal in sight.

HAD BET AGAINST A COFFIN.

(From The New York Times.)

W. C. Skinner, who was at the Plaza for many years before he opened the Hotel Clark, recently after a long absence, and told his story of a bet that was registered in his hotel, which he had made with a friend who began.

Two of the roughest rovers for the national game in Derby are W. L. Young and Walter Perkins, said Mr. Skinner. "Young was once referred to as the 'brave' of the Mackmen."

"I'll tell you what I'll do," exclaimed Young, "I'll bet you a bat against anything you care to name that the Braves win the series."

"Let me take that correctly," replied Mr. Skinner, "and I'll bet you a bat against the wagers I get a hat, and if you win I'll give you a bat."

"You can take it that way if you want," replied Mr. Skinner, "and I'll give you the name of the stake and give it to you."

"We opened Perkins' paper Saturday night," Mr. Skinner continued, "and saw that Young was at first, but he saw the joke and he was not to be taken in."

"Perkins wrote him an order on a local undertaker for the fanciest coffin in his stock."

South Georgia Conference Meets in Dawson Church, November 25-30

Bishop Warren Candler Will Preside and Assign Ministers of Conference to New Charges.

3 PRESIDING ELDERS GO TO NEW FIELDS

Names of Many Pastors Given Who Have Completed Terms and Will Receive New Appointments.

By Rev. W. A. Brooks. Blackhawk, Ga., November 15.—(Special.)—The forty-eighth annual session of the South Georgia conference will be held in Dawson, November 25-30. Just about one hundred years ago, at the first Methodist preacher-rendered regular service in this section of the state.

Then followed the formation of three missions, the Lee, the Elmore and the Randolph. Rev. James Dunwoody, one of Georgia's pioneer Methodist preachers, was among the first to enter the Lee mission, which included all the territory embraced now and formerly in Lee, Sumter and Marion counties. From "Dunwoody's Life" we learn that his success on the mission was but meager. In 1824, the conference of Lee was formed; in 1826 Randolph county was formed; and in 1826 Terrell county was formed from Lee and Randolph counties and was called in honor of Dr. William Terrell, of Hancock county, who sat at one of the sessions of the conference in the legislature and was from 1817 to 1821 a member of congress.

Dawson Territory Municipality. Dawson, the county seat of Terrell, is the seat of the approaching session of the South Georgia conference, a thriving municipality of approximately four thousand inhabitants, and is famous for its trained and hearty hospitality and the forty-eighth session of the conference held fair to one of the most important of the entire history of the body.

Three Elders to Move. Three presiding elders and eleven pastors will be assigned to new fields at the session of the conference, to be held at Dawson, November 25-30. The presiding elders are: Rev. J. P. McFerrin, D. D., of the Macon district; Rev. J. P. McFerrin, D. D., of the Dawson district; Rev. J. P. McFerrin, D. D., of the Dawson district.

Blanch Candler to Precede. It is a matter of congratulation among the south Georgia Methodists that Bishop W. A. Candler, of Atlanta, who held the last session of the conference.

By Rev. A. C. Headley. Carrollton, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—The ninety-third session of the Georgia Baptist convention will be held here, beginning on Tuesday and continuing through Friday, holding three daily sessions at the Tabernacle Baptist church. The Tabernacle was erected last year at a cost of $100,000, and is a beautiful addition to the already large number of fine churches in the city. The building has more than sixteen hundred seats, which amply provides for the annual gatherings. The structure is modern in every particular and will be a source of great pleasure to the many delegates.

Elaborate Preparations. A. K. Sneed, chairman of the entertainment committee, and Hon. Leon Hood, chairman of the information and publicity committee, have spared no time and pains to make necessary preparation for the more than seven hundred delegates and to see that each has a comfortable and enjoyable stay in the city.

Company's Record in Georgia. The Georgia Baptist convention is composed of more than 2,422 churches, embracing more than 2,422 churches, beginning with one church in 1770, the oldest church in the historical record, established by the Rev. Daniel Marshall in 1770.

It will be remembered that he was a son of Odumson Judson, the first American missionary to India, who, after more than thirty years' work in India and other foreign countries, returned to the United States and while en route to the Isle of France for his health, Dr. Edward Judson died October 18, while arrangements were being perfected to secure him as speaker of the plenary session of the convention, linking between the first missionary and the present time.

Has a Cure For Pellagra

Parle Nicholas, Laurel, Miss., writes: "Some time ago I had not obtained relief ready when I did I would not have lived much longer. I am glad you discovered this wonderful remedy that will cure Pellagra. When I began taking Baugh's Pellagra Remedy my weight was 60-pound; now it is 85-pound. I would like to have this published and sent to sufferers of Pellagra."

This is published at his request. If you suffer from Pellagra or know of anyone who suffers from Pellagra it is your duty to consult the renowned Baugh, who has fought and conquered the dreaded malarial right in the Pellagra Belt of Alabama.

The symptoms—hands red like sunburn, skin peeling off; sore mouth, sore throat and tongue; a stinging, itching, burning, and stinging, with much mucus and choking; indigestion and nausea; either diarrhea or constipation.

There is a cure for you who have Pellagra you can be cured by Baugh's Pellagra Remedy. Write for a free copy of the book "The Pellagra Remedy" to Dr. J. B. Baugh, 1000 North Main Street, New Orleans, La., or to the nearest drug store.

DANDRUFF SURELY DESTROYS THE HAIR

Makes it Dull, Brittle, Lifeless, and Causes It To Fall Out.

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, if by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you do it.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid Arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, your hair will be silky, shiny, lustrous, soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid Arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Granddaughter Is Flower Girl At Marriage of Old Veteran

"Silver Threads Among the Gold" was the wedding mair, by request of the bride, and the granddaughter of the groom as the flower girl, were featured in an interesting wedding Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the Martha Brown Memorial M. E. church, East Atlanta, when, after a courtship of four years, an old Confederate veteran, J. H. Shelnutt, was married to Mrs. Mary E. Turner.

The groom was 67 years of age, and the bride 65. The groom has been married three times and has three children. The romance began in the cyclorama at Grant park four years ago. Mr. Shelnutt was viewing the wonderful picture of the battle of Atlanta, and the days of '64 were brought again to his mind. Suddenly he turned, and his eyes fell on a maid of those old days, Mrs. Turner, by his side. Tears, too, were in her eyes, and immediately a warm comradeship sprang up between the two. It was a case of love at first sight, as the bride expressed it.

Mr. Shelnutt went west shortly afterwards on a business trip, and did not return until this last summer. He learned that Mrs. Turner, whom he had never forgotten, was living in East Atlanta, secured her address and renewed his acquaintance.

Mr. Shelnutt is assistant general and chief of staff of the North Georgia brigade, United Confederate Veterans.

Both the bride and groom own considerable property, and are comfortably fixed. They are at home temporarily at 321 North Avenue, in East Atlanta, but are planning a honeymoon during the winter through Florida.

Z. T. Anderson, who fought the battle of Atlanta, acted as best man at the wedding. Miss Julia C. Everett was maid of honor. I. P. Bowen gave the bride away, and little Sarah Smith, daughter of the groom, was the flower girl. J. B. Smith and T. J. Smith, attendants of the groom, attended the wedding.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and autumn leaves. A large crowd was present.

Dr. C. V. Weather, pastor of the church, officiated. Miss Lillie Everett played the wedding march, "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

HAIR FEELS OUT BY HANDS

Scalp Itched All the Time. Could Not Sleep. Nearly Lost Out of Hair. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Head All Healed.

2016 W. Fairmont Ave., Baltimore, Md.

"I had been suffering for about six months with itching of the scalp. It began by the scalp breaking out in sores which itched all the time. I had tried many things, but nothing would help. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Head All Healed."

Address: "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

FOUR DAYS ONLY OF HALF PRICES

An Opportunity for the Sick That Will Never Occur Again.

Those Who Desire Magnetic Treatment Must Come at Once to Secure the Low Prices, as Regular Fees Will Be Charged Commencing November 20.

Within the space of a few weeks the Human Magnet has cured hundreds of cases of chronic diseases, and the immediate vicinity of afflictions that caused them years of suffering. It is a wonderful remedy. There is no other medicine that accomplishes such wonderful results in healing as vital magnetism. It is instantaneous, it is permanent, and it is because of the immediate cure made in the most serious cases that many patients have been cured of their afflictions, and opportunity is offered to some additional cases for immediate treatment.

Realizing that many people are now at present able to afford the regular fees, even though they want the treatment and need it badly, Dr. May decided to offer treatment to a limited number, for one week only, at one-half the usual prices. The first announcement of this offer brought so many more than were expected, that it was necessary to impress forcibly on the minds of those who may be considering taking treatment, that only four days remain in which to obtain it at the one-half price.

At the one-half price, the treatment will be maintained after that date, and the patient will be able to continue their treatment at the regular price. Those who call for examination and treatment on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, and who are still suffering from their afflictions, will be able to obtain the treatment at the one-half price. The time for treatment at half rates is therefore, if you wish to take advantage of this offer, to come now.

If you are afflicted with disease that you are unable to come now and get out for yourselves the marvelous virtues of vital magnetism, the best remedy ever known in the history of the world.

It is a wonderful remedy. There is no other medicine that accomplishes such wonderful results in healing as vital magnetism. It is instantaneous, it is permanent, and it is because of the immediate cure made in the most serious cases that many patients have been cured of their afflictions, and opportunity is offered to some additional cases for immediate treatment.

Realizing that many people are now at present able to afford the regular fees, even though they want the treatment and need it badly, Dr. May decided to offer treatment to a limited number, for one week only, at one-half the usual prices. The first announcement of this offer brought so many more than were expected, that it was necessary to impress forcibly on the minds of those who may be considering taking treatment, that only four days remain in which to obtain it at the one-half price.

A CHARMING simplification of the redingote is the suit shown above, which is developed in navy blue serge and is trimmed with a black satin collar and band of fur. The underskirt is of black satin and is edged with fur. The deep V neck of the coat is softened with a narrow band of organdy and the high rolling collar is most becoming. This young lady is carrying on her arm one of the new silk tricot sweaters which may be had in many wonderful combinations of color.

When coats are not very long, they are very short and full like the green broadcloth one on the figure in the center. This suit shows several new features, short coat with cape-like extension in the back, wide braid trimmings and the narrow shoulders and bell-shaped skirt. The collar and muff are of fur.

The next girl is wearing a black-and-white plaid top coat of Russian velour with collar and cuffs of monkey fur. This coat, when worn with the black velvet jockey cap, would make a most comfortable combination for motor wear.

For Poorest, Puniest Babies Prizes Will Be Awarded

MORE PRIZES OFFERED.
The following additional prizes are being offered for the most delicate baby examined in the Better Babies contest:
Double sauce pan by King Hardware company.
Baby cap, by Tailor-Made Corset company.
Sterling silver baby spoon, Jack Hawkins, southern representative.
L. P. McCutcheon & Bros., Philadelphia.
Half-dozen photographs of prize-winner, by The Constitution, The Journal and The Georgian.

Never before in the history of babydom have prize awards been given for the most delicate and sickest babies put on exhibition. Yet that is what the general committee of the better babies contest now in progress at the Baptist Tabernacle, proposes to do next week.

The mother who brings the weakest infant will get the greatest award. The winners will not be announced publicly nor prizes awarded in this manner. All correspondence will be done through mail. The mothers who carry off these unwanted prizes will be unknown to all except the examining nurses and officials. This scheme is to assure better babies.

NEGRO SAYS BANDIT ROBBED HIM OF $6

L. S. Mann, a negro fireman employed by the Atlanta Cotton Oil Mill company, called at The Constitution office last night and stated that he had been knocked in the head by a white man and robbed of $6 at 5 o'clock last night in West End.

According to his story, he had gone to West End to collect some money from a woman. On Avenue avenue he was suddenly accosted by a man, who held him up at the point of a gun and then knocked him in the head with the butt of the pistol.

PEEVISH, CONSTIPATED CHILDREN LOVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

Harmless "Fruit Laxative"
Cleanses Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stompy, or breathy by "California Figs" you have a stomach ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the real, constipating stuff will be gently moved out of his little bowels and you have a well, playful baby again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless fruit laxative; they love its delicious taste and it makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

bles from the specimens who need reconstructive betterment. The prizes thus far have been the healthiest and best lot of infants that a southern show has ever known. But the official contest that is not the class that needs the efforts of the better babies movement, but the puny and delicate ones, whose future lives are in danger of permanent impairment.

A dozen or more prizes will be given to the unhealthiest babies and how to insure their future; how to care for the health of the mother and to remedy baby's illness.

The contest will last until next Wednesday, when the prizes will be awarded. A novel feature has been arranged in conjunction with the contest, namely, the prize-winning infant will be displayed at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Auditorium.

From 4:30 until 5 all babies will be put on exhibition in the Auditorium. The mothers of the babies will be given a "Better Babies" card, which will be delivered by a nurse.

Three hundred and forty-eight babies have been entered up to date in the contest, with prospects for many more next week.

WAYCROSS FORGETTING POLITICS THIS TIME

Waycross, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—With only five more days left within which to register it appears very much like Waycross is not going to get excited over politics this winter, something that citizens generally will welcome. The registration book so far shows a very light total as compared to last year when a mayor was nominated. It is doubtful if the registration gate as high as a thousand names, and many who register will have entered up to date in the contest of a few over five hundred.

WAYCROSS WOODMEN WILL BUILD HOME

Waycross, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—Woodmen of Waycross, encouraged by the rapid growth of the order in this city, are now looking forward to the erection of a home of their own on the corner of the city.

Robbed and Shot.
Waycross, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—Chaining that he was held up and robbed of $14, then shot a negro was here from Allentown, near which he claims he was robbed. The sound is regarded as a serious one and the police are looking for him. He has friends here who do not know him except as Sonny.

MEMBERS OF CHURCH MEET TODAY TO PLAN TO SAVE TABERNACLE

Unless $2,000 in cash is raised today, the famous Baptist Tabernacle will be sold to pay off the interest on the church mortgage. At the rally service to be held this morning at the Tabernacle, Mrs. Mary Harris Arnold, known as the "Georgia Whitliff," and William J. Upham, the editor of The Golden Age, will make pleas for saving the church.

C. Boatman, director of the Tabernacle choir, has prepared a special program of old-time songs. The building was erected four years ago, when Dr. Lee G. Broughton was pastor, and is the largest in the south. The board of deacons have notified the members of the church's needs and it is hoped that the money will be raised at this morning's service.

The Tabernacle has offered its handsome $10,000 pipe organ as security for a loan of $2,000 to pay the interest on the debt it owes to James M. Smith, owner of Oglethorpe county. Only a small amount has been raised so far, but with the church's interest, and this has come in from outsiders.

W. C. T. U. Opens Free Clinic To Fight the Tobacco Habit

A free clinic for the treatment of the tobacco habit, under the auspices of the national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, now in session, will be held in the basement of the Baptist Tabernacle Monday afternoon, beginning at 1 o'clock.

The clinic, which is under the department of the "anti-parrotic" committee, will be free to every man or boy in Atlanta, and will be under the direction of a competent physician. The treatment is said to be thorough and not dangerous.

That whisky was directly responsible for the Colorado strike war and that the strike in turn, was directly responsible for the prohibition of Colorado in the last election, was declared Saturday by Mrs. Adrianna Hunsicker, state president of the W. C. T. U. in Atlanta.

LAGRANGE NOW USES COLUMBUS CO.'S POWER
Lagrange, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—On Saturday afternoon the city of Lagrange closed down its steam generating plant and began using the electric power from the Columbus Power company, generated at their Goat Rock dam on the Chattahoochee river, about forty miles from Lagrange. The change was made in accordance with a contract between the city and the power company agreed upon several weeks ago. The business of the city of Lagrange is now to the point where it was a question of buying power outside.

DEWITT BURKHEAD LOSES ARM IN GIN
Lagrange, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—While working at the entrance of a mill near Linville, DeWitt Burkhead, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Burkhead, of Ashland, had his hand and arm fearfully mangled by the gin Friday morning. It was necessary to amputate the hand just above the wrist. Mr. Burkhead is a popular young man, about 22 years old.

WARE DOCTORS FORM "PAY ME" SOCIETY
Waycross, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—Members of the Ware County Medical society have perfected an organization for the purpose of collecting more money on their bills. It is claimed that as a rule physicians are not paid more than 50 cents for a visit and that such a discrimination is unfair.

partments have been created for the purpose of promoting total abstinence. According to the national officers, the present convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance union is one of the largest in history. Different from other conventions of this fall and winter, the number of visitors and delegates reached and exceeded expectations.

Today there are 733 accredited delegates on the floor at the Baptist Tabernacle, where the sessions are being held, where the state delegates from Pennsylvania, which has sixty women enrolled beneath its banner.

Mrs. Mary Harris Arnold, the temperance orator, called attention last night to the fact that the strike in Colorado, which had woman suffrage voted against liquor in the recent election, despite the first press reports to the contrary, was holding no more brief for woman suffrage, she declares she believes it is a good thing, and that it is a great aid in the temperance cause.

That Jack London is one of the most active and powerful forces for prohibition in California, though, perhaps, unconsciously and unwillingly, was declared Saturday by Mrs. E. L. W. state president of the California W. C. T. U. in Atlanta yesterday. Mrs. London's John Barleycorn, she said, is a powerful force for prohibition in this country.

Medical Meeting at Cordele November 18
Cordele, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—The semi-annual meeting of the Third Congressional District Medical association, to be held in Cordele on November 18, promises to be largely attended. An afternoon and night session will be held. The address of welcome on behalf of the city will be delivered by Judge E. F. Struelens, and the welcome address on the part of the Cordele Medical society will be delivered by Dr. J. G. Dean, of Swanton.

DIVERSIFICATION HELPS HOLD COTTON
Lagrange, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—The warehouses in Lagrange have been filled to overflowing with cotton and now several of the main streets of this city are crowded with hundreds of bales of this staple. An encouraging fact is that it is stored in the hands of local planters, who are diversification in last year's crop, are in a position to hold their cotton in large quantities for another year.

LA FOLLETTE SPEAKS ON EUROPEAN SITUATION

Waycross, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—Senator Robert La Follette, of Wisconsin, has announced as his subject for a lecture he will deliver in Waycross Tuesday night under the auspices of the High School Athletic association. "The European Situation," he expects to discuss, the causes that led up to the present war. Plans are being made to give him a big crowd in Waycross, and his welcome here will be most cordial.

Relief for Catarrh Sufferers Now FREE

You Can Now Treat This Trouble in Your Own Home and Get Relief at Once.

How the Remedy for Catarrh Was Discovered.

THIS terrible disease has raged unchecked for years simply because of the treatment which has been treated while the cause of the trouble has been left to circulate in the blood, and bring the disease back as fast as local treatments could relieve it.

C. E. Gauss, who experimented for years on a treatment for Catarrh, found that after perfecting a balm that relieved the nose and throat troubles quickly, he could not prevent the trouble beginning all over again.

On test cases, he could completely remove all signs of Catarrh from nose and throat, but in a few weeks they were back.

Careful experiments and investigations have shown that as the troubles were expelled from the nose and throat, the real cause of the disease was overlooked and in a short time the Catarrh would return stronger than ever. Mr. Gauss has gone way ahead of the ordinary methods of treatment and has provided a remedy that

MONCRIEF FURNACES

☐ The Moncrief Furnace Co., 139 S. Pryor St., the manufacturers of the famous "Original Atlanta Made Moncrief Furnace," win their suit against a concern using their name. ☐ The greatest asset of the Moncrief Furnace Co. has been the name "Moncrief" on furnaces—this name was infringed on—the public was at a loss to decide which was the "Original Moncrief Furnace." ☐ The following decision handed down by the Superior Court of Fulton County sets at rest for all time the exclusive use of the name "Moncrief" on furnaces:

S. P. MONCRIEF, et al.

No. 28424
Fulton
Superior Court

Whereupon, it is considered, ordered and adjudged:

1. That S. P. Moncrief and his associates and assigns shall be entitled to the exclusive use of the trade name "Moncrief" on furnaces, in his or their business, in the states of Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina.

Extract from the decree handed down by Superior Court the 30th day of September, 1914

The Moncrief Furnace has many advantages over other furnaces. Don't buy a piece of scrap iron and think you are buying a furnace; trade with a reputable concern.

BACON AND BARROW COUNTIES ATTACKED

Citizens of Alma Raise Question as to Whether the Amendments Carried.

Attorney General Warren Grell will decide Monday whether or not the constitutional amendments creating the counties of Bacon and Barrow are legal, or whether the technical errors discovered in the bills will stand and defeat the measures.

Citizens of Alma, Ga., the county seat of one of the new counties, have raised the question as to whether the amendments carried. The point is urged that the vote provided for the submission of the two new county amendments to the voters of the state set forth that they should become a part of the constitution if a majority of the "voters qualified to vote in the election for members of the general assembly cast their ballots for them."

The contention is raised that the technical construction of the amendments renders them both valid. Although the amendments received a majority of the votes cast in general election they did not receive a majority of the votes of those qualified to vote in the election, for the reason that many of those qualified did not vote at all.

Authors of the bill do not believe the technical construction of the amendments renders them both valid. A result because there is a constitutional provision which provides the method of voting on constitutional amendments, and provides how these amendments shall be adopted.

The acts creating Bacon and Barrow counties did not contain these clauses, hence they are safe from attack on the above grounds.

Many "Down and Outs" Being Given Aid by Associated Charities

Saturday was the third day that the Associated Charities has been open since it closed several weeks ago on account of lack of funds to operate, and the day was the busiest the association has had in many a day. Most of the applicants for help, however, were on the regular aid list of the charities, and who now have again known what it is to be "down and out" and no place to turn for succor.

One of the cases was of a young man, 22 years old, with a wife and a week-old baby at home, hungry, while he was out of a job and had walked the streets of Atlanta in vain looking for one.

The charities, therefore, find it impossible to close its doors, in spite of the fact that all the money needed to keep it open is being raised by the public. Little over $2,000 of the $10,000 is now lacking, and it is hoped that the people of Atlanta will realize the utter impossibility of this city getting along without the institution, and come to its assistance by subscribing the deficit amount.

Say He Used Plank on Her.

Waycross, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—Henry White, charged with assault and battery, in which it is alleged he used a plank on a woman, has given bond and is out of jail pending his trial in court next month.

Lindsey Hopkins Re-enters Auto Field as Executive Head Atlanta Cadillac Co.

The advent of the new eight-cylinder Cadillac has induced Lindsey Hopkins to re-enter the automobile field. On or about December 1, he will become executive head of the Atlanta Cadillac company, succeeding Frank Steinhauser. The latter will, however, continue his affiliation with the company, and will be associated with Mr. Hopkins in the sales and service business. Mr. Steinhauser is well and famous known to Cadillac associates in Atlanta and throughout the distributing territory, of which this city is the center.

Announcement of Mr. Hopkins' new affiliation is one of the most important events in the automobile field in many months. For years he has been an important figure in the industry, having been a pioneer in this business in the south, and one of the first autolists to recognize the big possibilities in this section for the motor business generally. He was for a long time one of the most widely known figures in this industry, having, until his retirement about a year ago, been the southern representative of the Overland company. While with the Overland, Mr. Hopkins made a record for sales, which ranked him among the most progressive leaders in the south. He is also well known in civic and social life.

Following his retirement from the Overland company, Mr. Hopkins made a reputation in the world of finance. He conducted a financial and mortgage business in the Candler building, in which he has been so successful that he intends to continue looking after these interests. He is also substantially interested in North Carolina insurance securities. He will close his office in the Candler building and will consolidate his offices at the home of the Atlanta Cadillac company, at 235 Peachtree street.

One of the first moves to be made by Mr. Hopkins as executive head of the Atlanta Cadillac company, will be to inaugurate important improvements and changes in the sales rooms and shops of the company and to begin a campaign for the development and extension of the Cadillac business in this territory. Because of his belief that the new eight-cylinder car of the Cadillac company is the "acme of perfection" in autos, Mr. Hopkins intends to make his coming campaign a record-breaker, insofar as sales in this section are concerned.

"It is my opinion," said Mr. Hopkins, "that the eight-cylinder Cadillac car will usher in a new era in the world of automobiles. And it is because of my great confidence in the ability of this new type of car that I was induced to re-enter the automobile field."

The Master Car.

"There has come to me during the last few months numerous proposals in the agency management field, but none has appeared to me so consistent and inviting as the Cadillac. This is the car of the future in the motor business. No machine that is so perfect in its construction, so simple in its operation, so comfortable in its ride, and so safe in its construction, like this. Always there is that velvety smooth flow of power, whether the machine is going a mile a minute or only two miles an hour. So completely do the creases overlap that they virtually melt into one continuous, smooth and steady flow of power. I predict freely that its advent and reception by the riding public will be one big success.

It was through my familiarity with aeroplanes, one of which I owned in the south last year, that I became acquainted with the value and power of eight-cylinder motors. Stability is an important requisite in aeroplaning and to attain this, the V-type eight-cylinder motors are generally used. This type of motor, in the automobile industry, has been for some time the standard on one of the most famous cars—the Daimler, Daimler, or Daimler.

Just as soon as the general public realizes that the eight-cylinder motor is really simpler than the six-cylinder, there is no doubt of its ultimate adoption on every high grade car. Already this realization is apparent, since, although the Atlanta Cadillac company has not yet received its distributor car, substantial orders for the new machine have been booked and there has come to the local offices of the company repeated inquiries concerning it."

WANT BETTER MARKET FOR TURPENTINE

Waycross, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—Following the conference held in Waycross, many of the producers of turpentine have agreed with a recently organized association for the purpose of creating better marketing conditions of turpentine. An agreement that will be a minimum price for turpentine is hoped to improve the industry.

Haralson Court.

LaGrange, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—Judge C. E. Edwards has called a special term of Haralson county court to be held at LaGrange, Ga., on November 23, and continue for two weeks.

More Rain Expected in Atlanta Sunday; Colder Next Week

Owing to the passage across the southern part of the state of the Gulf storm, rain will probably continue early Sunday at Atlanta, with rather high northwest winds. There is prospect, however, that the storm will move rapidly Sunday so that clearing will set in Sunday afternoon if not earlier.

Temperature immediately after the rainfall will be in the 40s and 50s, but cold weather in western Canada indicates colder weather early next week. Sunday therefore will not be a very pleasant day.

HUNDREDS SEARCH FOR MISSING MAN

E. O. Walker Mysteriously Disappears From Waycross. Foul Play Is Suspected.

Waycross, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—An all-day search by officers and friends has failed to disclose any clue as to the whereabouts of E. O. Walker, whose mysterious disappearance was reported to police early today. It is feared he met foul play, either in or near Waycross, last night and that his body was hid in the woods or thrown into the Satilla river. When last seen the missing man had between $400 and $500 in cash, and robbery is advanced as the motive for the crime suspected. Receipt books and other personal effects were found this morning in a park in the heart of the city.

It is the only direct development in the case. Consulting reports from circulation only to meet by emergency. Walker is secretary of the local chapter of the World and a Foreman in the Atlantic Coast Line chapter of the same organization. He is a shaven, has black hair and brown eyes, and is about 35 years of age. His father is a corner-elect of Ware and came here from Brooklyn.

The missing man's wife is prospected in this industry, and is a serious. Examination of Walker's books shows that he is all in the city. When last seen Walker was in a friendly park, shortly after 11 o'clock last night and he told a friend he was going to get a carriage and go home. A short while after this, it is reported he was seen with a stranger.

Walker was well liked and popular with all. Arrangements were made tonight for a more extensive search of the country surrounding Waycross tomorrow, which more than 100 persons will participate in.

GOVERNMENT HOLDS NEGROES ACCUSED OF COUNTERFEITING

Federal warrants charging M. C. Walborn, Sam Williams and H. E. Howell, negroes, with counterfeiting, were sworn out before United States Commissioner Carter Saturday, and Captain J. M. Wright, of the government secret service, took the men from the custody of the city police and is holding them pending indictment by the federal grand jury.

The men were arrested in a raid on a counterfeiting plant on Piedmont avenue, Williams, it is alleged, attempted to pass counterfeit money on Mrs. Ida Goldberg, proprietress of a store at No. 1 Granger street. She called Policeman O. H. Jones, who arrested the men and later led Captain Wright to the plant.

It is said that the negroes confessed to passing coins amounting to several hundred dollars, but they denied that they stored any spurious coin away. They told Captain Wright the "quest" was spent as fast as it was made.

WASHINGTON OFFICERS VISIT CHIEF BEAVERS

Lieutenant C. L. Plimmon and Patrolman W. J. Lee, of the police Department, visited Chief Beavers at the station house Saturday afternoon, and inspected the workings of the department. They stated that this was their first visit to Atlanta, which was occasioned by bringing to the Federal prison twenty-eight prisoners—two white men and twenty-six negroes.

They found much to praise during their visit, and the station house. They found the police department admirably equipped for the work.

Young Men's Christian Association Inaugurates Whirlwind Campaign For New Members Needed at Once

STREET NEWSBOYS' CLASS AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Four hundred Atlanta business men are needed at once as members of the Young Men's Christian Association. More than that, the association's leaders mean to have them, and they are going out this week, assisted by committees of business men aggregating more than 100, to show them why they should become members. Wherein they can get a whole lot more where their money's worth by becoming members and using the association's facilities.

This is one campaigner and at the same time another will be launched for 100 general members under an entirely different canvas, with ten committees aggregating 100 men, all young men.

Both of these campaigns were launched at a general meeting of the officers, directors and members of the Young Men's Christian Association held Saturday night in the auditorium of the new building, at which enthusiasm ran high and every member pledged himself to do everything in his power to put the association on a self-supporting basis.

There are now 410 general members of the Young Men's Christian Association and 150 boys members, and there are 100 more who are anxious to get in, but who cannot do so because they pay, until the income of the association through business membership is increased.

After Business Men.
Every business man who joins the Young Men's Christian Association and pays the annual dues of $15, not only gets more than his money's worth in the bathing, athletic and social facilities offered, but he makes it possible for the association to take care of at least two other things. First, nominal fees charged them for membership and services.

The new plant of the Young Men's Christian Association, which is one of the most modern and completely equipped in the United States, makes it possible for the association to take in more money, and, secondly, to use the facilities of the institution, keeping them off the street and out of competition, and building them into good citizens.

But the business man joining the association can get his money's worth out of it, besides helping the boys. There are more and more advantages to be had in the Atlanta Young Men's Christian Association than in any other institution of its kind in the south or elsewhere. It has a swimming pool, bathing, athletic and Turkish bath facilities, and makes it possible for

Bring Back Your Appetite

With a Little Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet, the Secret of Perfect Digestion.

You should see our farmers and their families eating the Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a day is the rule. No one ever has stomach trouble who takes them. They are digested and people live normally. In the city, where the food is so indigestible, dyspepsia, stomach trouble, etc., must be looked on as a daily ailment.

Farmers' Boys—Just think of breakfast in the city. He can't get it. Why a sandwich like this would kill him.

A majority of people have come to know the blessings which an occasional dose of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can confer upon the stomach. They are ignorant of the reason for this. They do not know that the tablets are made of a powerful little tablet have long since been known as a national food remedy, a thoroughly reliable and efficient cure for all forms of dyspepsia and indigestion.

No matter how great the excess of food taken into the stomach, one or two of these tablets will take care of it. A package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should always be in the house. Many a person has saved himself from a nervous breakdown or indigestion by using them after heavy eating, such as at Christmas, New Year's, Thanksgiving and other holidays and festive occasions.

After attending banquets, late suppers, many fancy dinners, and after parties, etc., where one has dined excessively and luxuriously, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should invariably be used, as they direct the food perfectly and completely, and prevent all possible ill effects of dyspepsia and indigestion. Use it more than likely to ensure.

Go to your druggist today and buy a box. A small sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will be mailed free to any one who will address J. P. Warner Co., 148 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

No Bill Is Returned For Lewis by Jury In Macon Bank Case

Macon, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—The United States grand jury, which had been in session here all week, this morning returned a no bill in the case of N. Nat. Lewis, cashier of the Commercial National Bank of Macon, who was recently absorbed by the American National Bank. Mr. Lewis was the only one of the officials of this bank who was investigated, though it is said that another grand jury will go into the alleged action of the officers and directors in making a decision to take two directors of the bank. The Lewis investigation simply dealt with certain official reports made by Lewis as cashier.

ELBERT FARMERS DO NOT SUFFER BY COTTON

Elberton, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—Cotton is moving very slowly in this county, though the price this week has been 74 cents a bushel. At home in the county almost may be seen bales of cotton stored. About half of what was marketed this time last year has been marketed here. It seems to be the consensus of opinion that the acreage will be reduced at least one-half next year, and some propose to plant none at all. Elberton county farmers, who have always raised enough to live on, are not suffering by the present condition of cotton.

DR. JAMES W. BRYANT BURIED AT LYERLY

Lyerly, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—Dr. James W. Bryant, who passed away at his home here Tuesday morning, was buried at the Baptist church Thursday the Rev. H. H. Campbell, pastor of the church, officiating at the services. Dr. Bryant was a well known physician in the county.

Congressman Howard Speaks to Farm Boys At DeKalb Corn Show

Decatur, Ga., November 14.—(Special.)—The annual meeting of the DeKalb County Farm Club was held at the courthouse in Decatur today. R. H. Hunter, county agent, had charge of the exhibit and contest. There was a number of the boys present, but owing to the bad weather the attendance was not as large as expected. There were twenty-two exhibits of ten or more ears of corn, and about fifty members of the club. No prizes were awarded today, this feature being left for another meeting to be held at a later date, when it is believed all exhibits will have been shown.

The largest yield in the county was by Eugene Clark, of Lithonia, 25 bushels and 25 pounds. Cost of production was 16 cents a bushel. The profit per acre was $15.41.

The second largest yield was by O. G. Cleveland, of Decatur. His yield was 24 bushels and 25 pounds. Cost of production was 16 cents a bushel. The profit per acre was $15.41.

The first two with short-corn exhibitors, the University of Georgia. The third and fourth were from the farms of Georgia.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderrine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair, and your scalp will not itch, but will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderrine immediately does the beauty of your hair. No dandruff, no itching, no faded, brittle and sagging hair, just moisten a cloth with Danderrine and rub it over your hair, through your hair, taking one small drop of Danderrine to each hair. The effecting—your hair will be light, fluffy and abundant, an incomparable lustre, and a 25-cent bottle of Danderrine's Dandruff Remover will cost you no more than a bottle of hair oil, and prove that your hair is as healthy as any—what if it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—there all you supply can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderrine.

BRONCHIAL COUGHS

When the bronchial tubes are affected with that weakening, tickling cough, they need immediate and sensible treatment. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present and your head aches with every cough. Your chest aches and the inflammation often spreads to the lungs.

The food-tonic that has proven its worth for forty years—Scott's Emulsion. It drives out the cold, which is the root of the trouble, and checks the cough by aiding the healing process of the embossed membranes.

If you are troubled with bronchitis or know an afflicted friend, always remember that Scott's Emulsion builds strength while relieving the trouble.

LEO FRANK LOSES SUPREME COURT

Petition to Set Aside Verdict Because He Was Not in Court When It Was Rendered, Denied.

The fight which has been waged in the state courts to save Leo Frank from the murder of Mary Phagan, came to an end Saturday at 1 o'clock—so far as the state courts are concerned—when the supreme court affirmed the decision of Judge Benjamin H. Hill in refusing to set aside the verdict on the ground that Frank was not in court when the verdict was read.

Within a few minutes after the decision had reached the clerk's office, Leonard Haas, attorney and close personal friend of Frank, declared that the next move would be in the nature of a writ of error to the United States supreme court. Attorney Haas is still hopeful as ever that Frank will be freed.

"It is more certain than ever that the truth is coming out," Attorney Haas said. "Frank is just as innocent as I am, and I know that I had nothing to do with the killing."

All justices of the supreme court except Justice Fish, who is ill, concurred in the decision. The opinion of the court, covering almost every phase of the case, was written by Justice Warren Hill. The decision covers more than thirty-two pages. It goes into a lengthy review of the law and the evidence, and cites a number of authorities on the subjects of motions for new trials and motions to dismiss.

The salient points in the opinion is that the points made by Frank in his motion to set aside the verdict of the jury could and should have been made in the previous motion for a new trial. The court quoted a number of authorities, and in connection with the points stated above, said:

"It will be seen that where a motion for a new trial is made, that the defendant in his motion for a new trial set out all that is known to him at the time of the motion, and that he could have known by him at the time of the motion for a new trial."

Frank Was Hospital. Frank, in his cell in the Tower, was taking his daily exercise in the courtyard, when he was informed that the supreme court had decided against him. His wife and other members of his family and several friends were with him. His demands were for information of the action of the court indicated that he had either received the information of the reverse, or that of a man who was steeled to bear up under any circumstance.

"I did not expect an unfavorable decision from the supreme court," he said. "I put great faith in my lawyers, and consequently I looked for the best. I have nothing to say at present."

Frank intimated that he would probably give out a statement later in the afternoon. He said that if nothing interfered he would probably prepare a statement.

Before carefully reading the decision of the court, Attorney Haas told reporters that he would have a conference with the other attorneys engaged in the case. He explained that the conference would be held immediately—just as soon as copies of the decision could be prepared by a stenographer. "We are asking the United States supreme court on a writ of error," Attorney Haas said with emphasis. "I believe that will be the next logical step. However, we will have plenty of time to determine our future plans." Attorney Haas declined to comment on the ruling of the supreme court. He said that he had not been given time to carefully discuss the various reasons given by the court.

The court, in citing its reason for refusing Frank's motion, to set aside the verdict on the ground that Frank was not in court when the verdict was rendered, received in the absence of the parties.

Faces As Fair As An Orchid

Are Possible When Stuart's Calcium Wafers Are Used After Meals to Clean Up Skin Eruptions and Discolorations.

When a face is covered with blotches, liver spots, pimples, blackheads, etc., Stuart's Calcium Wafers will act like some magical charm. However, there is nothing magical about them. They are nature's own way of cleansing the human blood and preventing it from filling the surface of the body—the skin—with pimples and skin eruptions.

"With a Face as Fair as a Day in June."

The abolishing of all skin disorders must begin with the blood. Lotions, facial powders, and cosmetic preparations do little good. The trouble comes from the blood. The remedy is in the blood.

If you really desire quick action and at the same time a common sense, natural, healthy skin, Stuart's Calcium Wafers is the remedy. The correct use of Stuart's Calcium Wafers is to eat one or two after each meal. It is known to science as—Calcium Sulphide. It cleanses the blood and keeps it in proper quantities in Stuart's Calcium Wafers. It cleanses the blood from blotches and skin blemishes rapidly disappearing.

An unsightly and pimply face due to impure blood is the most disgusting sight one can see, and yet it is common to see it in the most refined circles when traveling, etc. we see there is no need for this condition if you will take Stuart's Calcium Wafers daily and keep all skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, etc., from clogging the pores.

Every woman who is interested in this country carries Stuart's Calcium Wafers. It may be obtained for 50 cents a box. A small trial box of Stuart's Calcium Wafers may be obtained free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., 114 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

any afternoon. Beyond this, however, he would have nothing to say bearing on the case. Up to the present stage Dorsey has stated every case in which the state court has rendered a decision. The state court has rendered a decision in every case in which the state court has rendered a decision. The state court has rendered a decision in every case in which the state court has rendered a decision.

Defense Was Confident. The attorneys for Leo Frank had built great hopes on the supreme court decision. They were confident that it would be a decisive blow to the prosecution. They were confident that it would be a decisive blow to the prosecution. They were confident that it would be a decisive blow to the prosecution.
